

WSSU Student Success Workshops: FALL SEMESTER 2025 FINAL v2

Workshops are open to all WSSU students and last between 30 and 50 minutes (except where noted).

If you are a student in FYE1350/1250/1251, you must attend at least two workshops: one by October 10, and one by December 1, 2025.

All students: after attending a workshop, please complete this survey: <https://forms.gle/YoVBN4C95yAQoyNy9>

SEPTEMBER 2025

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
What You Need to Know TODAY (A Successful Student)	This workshop will discuss the dos and don'ts of a college student for all majors, but specifically for students in the Behavioral Science Field (Psychology, Sociology, Social Work and Gerontology). Visiting Students will come and speak.	Sept. 2 (Tue) 4pm & 6pm (attend only one session) Hill Hall 331	Vicki L. Grant, Advising Services
Science Success Night	Whether you're tackling general biology or any other science course, this session will give you the tools to thrive. Learn study strategies, understand concepts, engage with faculty, and receive insider advice from top-performing faculty.	Sept. 2 (Tue) 6pm to 7:30pm Hill Hall L05	Cynthia Grant, Bernadette McDougald-Clyburn, and Dr. Mesia Steed, Advising Services and the Biology Department
Level Up Your Life using A.I.: Gainfully Employed	This career and life-design workshop will help students align their personalities, lifestyles, and career goals with industries and opportunities that fit them best. It gives students practical tools to map out their academic journey while connecting them directly to their future earning potential and desired lifestyle. Seating limited: email littlelrq@wssu.edu to reserve a spot in advance.	Sept. 3 (Wed) 2pm Hill Hall 329	Rashad Little, University College Communications Specialist
The Dos and Don'ts of Dating on a College Campus	This workshop will discuss the importance of having fun meeting different people but also talk about safety as far as the different STD'S and Domestic Violence that could occur, and knowing the resources on campus that are available.	Sept. 4 (Thurs) 5pm Hill Hall 331	Bernadette McDougald Clyburn, Advising Services
Sampling 101 with 9 th Wonder	Learn the art, science, and history of sampling and beat making from Grammy Award-winning, multi-platinum producer, and Winston-Salem's very own, 9th Wonder.	Sept. 4 (Thurs) 7pm	Jonathan Jones, Library Services / Media Production Lab

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
	Limited seating, pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5ivyf	O'Kelly 205
Learning Secondhand Curriculum (Ram X: Power Hour Series)	Learning Secondhand Curriculum: explores the unspoken secondhand curriculum HBCU students often learn outside the classroom, like code-switching, navigating bias, and balancing authenticity with professionalism. This session creates space for honest dialogue and equips students with tools to thrive while staying true to themselves in real-world environments. Must sign up in advance through http://ramsync.wssu.edu	Sept. 9 (Tue) (sign up on ramsync to confirm time) DJR 100	Taylor Hayes, University Student Activities & Engagement
Adobe Express 101	A crash course on the many features within Adobe Express and how participants can utilize the online software for academic, personal, and professional use. Limited seating, pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5ivyf	Sept. 9 (Tue) 11am O'Kelly 205	Sharnette Evans, Library Services
Writing Toolbox: Structuring an Effective Essay	Learn how to craft strong introductions, clear thesis statements, and well-organized body paragraphs with effective topic sentences and transitions. This workshop will equip you with the tools to write essays that flow seamlessly from start to finish.	Sept. 9 (Tue) 4pm Hall Patterson 305	Writing and Communication Center
Suicide Awareness and Prevention Trivia Night	Students in Covington and Moore Halls plan for a fun, team-based trivia game designed to spark conversation, build awareness and share resources that can help save lives. Together we'll learn, engage and strengthen our Ram community through knowledge and support for one another!	Sept. 9 (Tue) 5:30pm to 7pm Covington Hall & Moore Hall	Project B-Healthy & Legacy Leaders, Academic Student Experiences and Engagement
Level Up Your Life using A.I.: Gainfully Employed	This career and life-design workshop will help students align their personalities, lifestyles, and career goals with industries and opportunities that fit them best. It gives students practical tools to map out their academic	Sept. 10 (Wed) 2pm Hill Hall 329	Rashad Little, University College Communications Specialist

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
	journey while connecting them directly to their future earning potential and desired lifestyle. Seating limited: email littlerq@wssu.edu to reserve a spot in advance.
Podcasting 101	An overview of podcasting best practices and how to navigate Adobe's digital audio workstation, Adobe Audition and Podcast.Adobe. Highlighting crafting engaging audio storytelling and a brief introduction of Adobe Rush for video podcasts. Limited seating and pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5ivyf	Sept. 10 (Wed) 6pm O'Kelly 205	Jonathan Jones, Library Services / Media Production Lab
Sip & Paint: World Cup Focus – Soccer Jerseys	Unleash your creativity while celebrating global unity through soccer! Students will design and paint their own World Cup-inspired jerseys while learning about the cultural significance of this sport across the world.	Sept. 11 (Thurs) 3:30 to 5pm Hill Hall 331	Office of International Programs
Adobe Premiere Rush 101	An overview of Adobe's user-friendly video editor. Helping create engaging visual storytelling for academic, personal or professional use. Limited seating and pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5ivyf	Sept. 16 (Tues) 11am O'Kelly 205	India Page, Library Services / Media Production Lab
Benefits of Asking for a Tutor	This workshop can help you understand how tutoring will help strengthen subject comprehension, boost confidence, and build important learning skills.	Sept. 16 (Tue) 3pm Hill Hall 331	Bernadette McDougald Clyburn, Advising Services
Level Up Your Life using A.I.: Gainfully Employed	This career and life-design workshop will help students align their personalities, lifestyles, and career goals with industries and opportunities that fit them best. It gives students practical tools to map out their academic journey while connecting them directly to their future earning potential and desired lifestyle. Seating limited: email littlerq@wssu.edu to reserve a spot in advance.	Sept. 17 (Wed) 2pm Hill Hall 329	Rashad Little, University College Communications Specialist

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
Using Generative AI Responsibly in Your Writing	Curious about ChatGPT, Quillbot, or other AI writing tools? This workshop will explore how to ethically and effectively integrate generative AI into your writing process. Learn how to use AI to brainstorm, organize, and revise without compromising your academic integrity or personal voice.	Sept. 17 (Wed) 4pm Hill Hall L05	Writing and Communication Center
Diving Deeper with Adobe Express	An in-depth look at some of Adobe Express' powerful features for academic, personal, and professional use. Limited seating and pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5ivf	Sept. 17 (Wed) 6pm O'Kelly 205	Jonathan Jones, Library Services / Media Production Lab
Research Speed Dating	Discover the research topic that connects with your passions. Learn ways to highlight why they matter and who would be interested in the findings.	Sept. 18 (Thurs) 3:30 to 5pm O'Kelly 127	Dr. Cynthia Williams Brown, with Office of Undergraduate Research
Movie & a Meal: Bend It Like Beckham	Enjoy a delicious meal while watching Bend It Like Beckham, a heartwarming film about balancing cultural traditions with personal passions. A discussion will follow on representation, identity, and international perspectives.	Sept. 18 (Thurs) 3:30 to 5pm Hill Hall L05	Office of International Programs
The Art of the Resume: Your Story on Paper - Using AI for Formatting Resumes	Discover how to craft a resume that tells your professional story and showcases your unique skills and experiences. This hands-on workshop will introduce you to AI-powered tools like Skills First, helping you format and structure your resume with ease.	Sept. 18 (Thurs) 4pm Hill Hall 210	Career Development Services
Resilience Strategies for Graduation	This workshop series builds on resilience training, offered by the University of Pennsylvania and the UNC System. The goal is to help you connect resilience strategies with staying on track toward graduation. Yes, you can come back from any setback. Make your "setback" a "set up" for college success and graduation!	Sept. 18 (Thurs) 4pm WB Atkinson Rm 101	Mackey McKee, Advising Services

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
Beyond the Books: Adult Learner Workshop	Looking for more time, wondering how to balance it all and still be an engaged learner? We will discuss all of the secrets of success as an adult learner! Also, enjoy coffee, donuts, a raffle, and a kids corner.	Sept. 22 (Mon) 5:30 to 6:30pm Hill Hall 331	Paula Davis & Dr. Edward Opoku Dapaah, with Office of Undergraduate Research
Photoshop 101	An introductory overview of photo editing, retouching, and creative design using Adobe's powerful industry-standard tool. Limited seating and pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5ivyf	Sept. 23 (Tue) 11am O'Kelly 205	Luchrita Grandison, Library Services / Media Production Lab
The Intern Advantage: Tools for Success	This session will provide you with tools and strategies to maximize the value of internships and turn them into steppingstones for your career. This workshop will cover how to set goals, build professional relationships, and leverage your internship to develop skills and gain valuable experience.	Sept. 23 (Tue) 12pm Hill Hall 210	Career Development Services
How to Become an Academic Weapon	Sometimes your academic workload can overwhelm you. How do you get back on track when you have fallen behind, and learn to be an academic weapon instead of being a victim of your academic standing?	Sept. 23 (Tue) 2pm Hill Hall 331	Jason Sneed, Advising Services
Level Up Your Life using A.I.: Gainfully Employed	This career and life-design workshop will help students align their personalities, lifestyles, and career goals with industries and opportunities that fit them best. It gives students practical tools to map out their academic journey while connecting them directly to their future earning potential and desired lifestyle. Seating limited: email littlerq@wssu.edu to reserve a spot in advance.	Sept. 24 (Wed) 2pm Hill Hall 329	Rashad Little, University College Communications Specialist
Podcasting 101	An overview of podcasting best practices and how to navigate Adobe's digital audio workstation, Adobe Audition and Podcast.Adobe. Highlighting crafting engaging audio storytelling and a brief introduction of Adobe Rush for video podcasts. Limited seating and pre-registration required:	Sept. 24 (Wed) 6pm O'Kelly 205	Jonathan Jones, Library Services / Media Production Lab

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
	https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5i_vf
Reclaim Your Time: Time Management Hacks	College is a juggling act. Learn to manage your time wisely to lead a more balanced life while dealing with academic, social, and personal stress. You will gain specific, actionable steps on how to take back control of your time and your life.	Sept. 25 (Thurs) 12pm Hill Hall 331	James Pao, Testing and Proctoring Center
Global Games Night	Experience the fun of games from around the globe! Students will play traditional and modern international games, fostering cultural exchange and friendly competition in a lively atmosphere.	Sept. 25 (Thurs) 3:30 to 5pm Hill Hall 331	Office of International Programs
The Art of the Resume: Your Story on Paper - Using AI for Formatting Resumes	Discover how to craft a resume that tells your professional story and showcases your unique skills and experiences. This hands-on workshop will introduce you to AI-powered tools like Skills First, helping you format and structure your resume with ease.	Sept. 25 (Thurs) 4pm Hill Hall 210	Career Development Services
Your Spotlight Moment: Elevator Speech Preparedness	This workshop will equip you with the tools to craft an engaging elevator speech that showcases who you are, what you do, and what you bring to the table. Perfect for networking events, interviews, and professional introductions, this session will help you create a memorable impression in just a few seconds.	Sept. 29 (Mon) 4pm Hill Hall 210	Career Development Services
Adobe Express 101	A crash course on the many features within Adobe Express and how participants can utilize the online software for academic, personal, and professional use. Limited seating, pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5i_vf	Sept. 30 (Tue) 11am O'Kelly 205	Sharnette Evans, Library Services
Aligning Career Goals with Graduate Programs	This workshop will help you to assess your career interests, identify graduate programs that align with	Sept. 30 (Tue) 3:30 to 5pm	The Graduate School, Career Services, and Office of Undergraduate Research

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
	your goals, and leverage university and AI tools for informed decision-making.	O'Kelly 318
Grammar Hacks: A Refresh on Grammar Rules	This workshop will help you brush up on essential grammar rules and improve your writing skills. We'll break down key concepts like commas, sentence structure, and the semicolon, offering simple "hacks" to enhance your writing.	Sept. 30 (Tue) 4pm Hall Patterson 305	Writing and Communication Center

OCTOBER 2025

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
Pink Out Breast Cancer Awareness & Vision Boards	Wear pink to honor survivors of breast cancer and continue to raise awareness for the cause. Create vision boards to inspire your future goals! Together we will celebrate hope, resilience and lean into the power of having a vision for our futures!	Oct. 1 (Wed) 5:30pm to 7pm Hill Hall 331	Legacy Leaders & Katrina McCoy Scott, Academic Student Experiences and Engagement
Adobe Premiere Rush 101	An overview of Adobe's user-friendly video editor. Helping create engaging visual storytelling for academic, personal or professional use. Limited seating, pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5ivf	Oct. 1 (Wed) 6pm O'Kelly 205	India Page, Library Services / Media Production Lab
Less Stress, More Success: Stress Management Tips	Semester got you stressed out? Feel like you're drowning in your stress and don't know how to manage it? Let's talk about it! Join the Counseling Center to learn more about stress, how it affects you, and put together an action plan for dealing with your stress.	Oct. 2 (Thurs) 7pm Hill Hall L05	Gabrielle Norcross, Counseling Services
Leading With Your Strength (Ram X: Power Hour Series)	Leading With Your Strength: This session discovers and helps students apply their unique strengths to lead authentically, collaborate with purpose, and thrive in all areas of life. Must sign up in advance through http://ramsync.wssu.edu	Oct. 2 (Thurs) (sign up on ramsync to confirm time) DJR 100	Taylor Hayes, University Student Activities & Engagement

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
Science Success Night	Whether you're tackling general biology or any other science course, this session will give you the tools to thrive. Learn study strategies, understand concepts, engage with faculty, and receive insider advice from top-performing faculty.	Oct. 7 (Tue) 6pm to 7:30pm Hill Hall 331	Cynthia Grant, Bernadette McDougald-Clyburn, Advising Services; and Dr. Mesia Steed, Department of Biology
The Intern Advantage: Tools for Success	This session will provide you with tools and strategies to maximize the value of internships and turn them into steppingstones for your career. This workshop will cover how to set goals, build professional relationships, and leverage your internship to develop skills and gain valuable experience.	Oct. 14 (Tue) 12pm Hill Hall 210	Career Development Services
From Scroll Mode to Scholar Mode	Reading a textbook shouldn't feel like a sleep spell! Learn how to engage with dense readings, chapters, and articles—without zoning out. Learn how to preview, annotate, and process what you read so that it sticks.	Oct. 15 (Wed) 4pm Hill Hall 331	Myra Doyle, Subject Tutoring
Sip & Paint: African Masks	Discover the history and symbolism behind African masks while painting your own inspired design. This hands-on event highlights the cultural significance of masks in African storytelling, art, and tradition.	Oct. 16 (Thurs) 3:30 to 5pm Hill Hall 331	Office of International Programs
Meet and Greet Research Partners	Learn why Employers like students that have research experience directly from employers.	Oct. 16 (Thurs) 3:30 to 5pm Hill Hall L05	Dr. Tangela Towns, Office of Undergraduate Research
Resilience Strategies for Graduation	This workshop series builds on resilience training, offered by the University of Pennsylvania and the UNC System. The goal is to help you connect resilience strategies with staying on track toward graduation. Yes, you can come back from any setback. Make your "setback" a "set up" for college success and graduation!	Oct. 16 (Thurs) 4pm WB Atkinson Rm 101	Mackey McKee, Advising Services
Your Spotlight Moment: Elevator Speech Preparedness	This workshop will equip you with the tools to craft an engaging elevator speech that showcases who you are, what you do, and what you bring to the table. Perfect for networking events, interviews, and professional	Oct. 20 (Mon) 4pm Hill Hall 210	Career Development Services

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
	introductions, this session will help you create a memorable impression in just a few seconds.
Adobe Express 101	A crash course on the many features within Adobe Express and how participants can utilize the online software for academic, personal, and professional use. Limited seating, pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5i_vf	Oct. 21 (Tue) 11am O'Kelly 205	Sharnette Evans, Library Services
How to Become an Academic Weapon	Sometimes your academic workload can overwhelm you. How do you get back on track when you have fallen behind, and learn to be an academic weapon instead of being a victim of your academic standing?	Oct. 21 (Tue) 5pm Hill Hall 331	Jason Sneed, Advising Services
Is This the Right Major for Me?	As advising and registration approaches, questions about how your major applies to your dreams may arise. Gain a clearer picture of the classes required to prepare for your future in a selected major. Let's explore and prepare for your destiny.	Oct. 22 (Wed) 3pm Hill Hall 331	Arthur Hardin and Chelsea Warren, Advising Services
Diving Deeper with Adobe Express	An in-depth look at some of Adobe Express' powerful features for academic, personal, and professional use. Limited seating, pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5i_vf	Oct. 22 (Wed) 6pm O'Kelly 205	Jonathan Jones, Library Services / Media Production Lab
Movie & a Meal: Lipstick Under My Burkha	Share a meal and view Lipstick Under My Burkha , a powerful film exploring women's voices, resilience, and self-discovery in India. After the film, engage in meaningful conversation about gender and culture worldwide.	Oct. 23 (Thurs) 3:30 to 5pm Hill Hall 331	Office of International Programs
Party With a Purpose: Meeting Peer Tutors	Join us for a fun, upbeat event where students can meet peer tutors, make connections and build relationships before the semester gets tough! It's a celebration with music, vibes and academic support all in one! Meet us before you need us!	Oct. 23 (Thurs) 5:30pm to 7pm Hill Hall 1 st Floor	Legacy Leaders & Tarsha Damon, Academic Student Experiences and Engagement

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
Advanced Research & Testing Strategies for Graduate Work	We will discuss testing success, especially for the GRE exam (required for entry into most graduate programs), and strategies to assist with successful graduate school preparation and applications.	Oct. 29 (Wed) 2pm Hill Hall 331	James Pao, Testing and Proctoring Center and Dr. Tangela Towns, Office of Undergraduate Research
Is This the Right Major for Me?	As advising and registration approaches, questions about how your major applies to your dreams may arise. Gain a clearer picture of the classes required to prepare for your future in a selected major. Let's explore and prepare for your destiny.	Oct. 29 (Wed) 3pm Hill Hall 331	Arthur Hardin and Chelsea Warren, Advising Services
The Art of the Resume: Your Story on Paper - Using AI for Formatting Resumes	Discover how to craft a resume that tells your professional story and showcases your unique skills and experiences. This hands-on workshop will introduce you to AI-powered tools like Skills First, helping you format and structure your resume with ease.	Oct. 30 (Thurs) 4pm Hill Hall 210	Career Development Services
Influence Without Authority (Ram X: Power Hour Series)	Influence Without Authority: In this session, students will discover that they can lead even when they are not in charge. Small actions can still have a big impact. Must sign up in advance through http://ramsync.wssu.edu	Oct. 30 (Thurs) (sign up on ramsync to confirm time) DJR 100	Taylor Hayes, University Student Activities & Engagement

NOVEMBER 2025

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
Podcasting 101	An overview of podcasting best practices and how to navigate Adobe's digital audio workstation, Adobe Audition and Podcast.Adobe. Highlighting crafting engaging audio storytelling and a brief introduction of Adobe Rush for video podcasts. Limited seating and pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5i_vf	Nov. 4 (Tue) 11am O'Kelly 205	Jonathan Jones, Library Services / Media Production Lab

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
The Intern Advantage: Tools for Success	This session will provide you with tools and strategies to maximize the value of internships and turn them into steppingstones for your career. This workshop will cover how to set goals, build professional relationships, and leverage your internship to develop skills and gain valuable experience.	Nov. 4 (Tue) 12pm Hill Hall 210	Career Development Services
Adobe Premiere Rush 101	An overview of Adobe's user-friendly video editor. Helping create engaging visual storytelling for academic, personal or professional use. Limited seating and pre-registration required: https://new.express.adobe.com/webpage/zC864S7Yw5iyf	Nov. 5 (Wed) 11am O'Kelly 205	India Page, Library Services / Media Production Lab
How to Become an Academic Weapon	Sometimes your academic workload can overwhelm you. How do you get back on track when you have fallen behind, and learn to be an academic weapon instead of being a victim of your academic standing?	Nov. 5 (Wed) 12pm Hill Hall 331	Jason Sneed, Advising Services
Level Up Your Life using A.I.: Gainfully Employed	This career and life-design workshop will help students align their personalities, lifestyles, and career goals with industries and opportunities that fit them best. It gives students practical tools to map out their academic journey while connecting them directly to their future earning potential and desired lifestyle. Seating limited: email littlerq@wssu.edu to reserve a spot in advance.	Nov. 5 (Wed) 2pm Hill Hall 329	Rashad Little, University College Communications Specialist
Brand U @ WSSU	This is an alumni-led session in which RAMS learn how to build a strong personal brand by connecting WSSU's legacy to their own marketability. Students will gain insights on crafting an image that stands out and opens doors for future opportunities.	Nov. 5 (Wed) 6pm to 7:30pm DJR 100B	WSSU Alumni, Academic Student Experiences and Engagement
Preparing for Midterm Exams	Start early by creating a study schedule and reviewing your syllabus to understand the exam format. Actively engage with the material by organizing notes, creating flashcards, and doing practice problems or tests. Take	Nov. 6 (Thurs) 5pm Hill Hall 331	Bernadette McDougald Clyburn, Advising Services

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
	breaks, study with classmates, and prioritize your well-being with healthy eating and sufficient rest.
Your Spotlight Moment: Elevator Speech Preparedness	This workshop will equip you with the tools to craft an engaging elevator speech that showcases who you are, what you do, and what you bring to the table. Perfect for networking events, interviews, and professional introductions, this session will help you create a memorable impression in just a few seconds.	Nov. 10 (Mon) 4pm Hill Hall 210	Career Development Services
Level Up Your Life using A.I.: Gainfully Employed	This career and life-design workshop will help students align their personalities, lifestyles, and career goals with industries and opportunities that fit them best. It gives students practical tools to map out their academic journey while connecting them directly to their future earning potential and desired lifestyle. Seating limited: email littlerq@wssu.edu to reserve a spot in advance.	Nov. 12 (Wed) 2pm Hill Hall 329	Rashad Little, University College Communications Specialist
The Courage to Fail (Ram X: Power Hour Series)	The Courage to Fail: In this session, students will uncover how to turn setbacks into steppingstones for success. Must sign up in advance through http://ramsync.wssu.edu	Nov. 13 (Thurs) (sign up on ramsync to confirm time) DJR 100	Taylor Hayes, University Student Activities & Engagement
Personal Finances: Credit Basics	Is your credit score helping or hurting you? Credit scores can have a huge impact on your financial wellbeing, providing access to jobs, housing, and future lending. During this interactive workshop, you'll: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand the importance of a good credit score and credit history • Explore the factors considered when calculating a credit score and ways to boost yours • Learn to proactively build and protect your credit 	Nov. 18 (Tue) 1pm Hill Hall 331	Lori Timm, Allegacy Federal Credit Union with the Testing and Proctoring Center
Budgeting for Financial Independence	Life after college may seem very uncertain. Regardless of where you end up and what you eventually do professionally, you will be responsible for managing	Nov. 18 (Tue) 2pm	Lori Timm, Allegacy Federal Credit Union with the

Workshop	Description	Date, Time, and Location	Presented By
	your financial future. During this interactive session, you'll: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learn to create a realistic budget that can flex to meet your needs • Identify budgeting strategies that can keep you on track to success • Explore ways to manage debt + new expenses for greater financial independence 	Hill Hall 331	Testing and Proctoring Center
Overcoming Personal Obstacles	As the semester comes near to a close, take a moment to step back and reconsider the mindsets you hold that might be preventing you from achieving your goals. Let's discover ways to re-create and re-craft these obstacles into opportunities for success in the future.	Nov. 19 (Wed) 1pm Hill Hall 331	James Pao, Testing and Proctoring Center
Level Up Your Life using A.I.: Gainfully Employed	This career and life-design workshop will help students align their personalities, lifestyles, and career goals with industries and opportunities that fit them best. It gives students practical tools to map out their academic journey while connecting them directly to their future earning potential and desired lifestyle. Seating limited: email littlerq@wssu.edu to reserve a spot in advance.	Nov. 19 (Wed) 2pm Hill Hall 329	Rashad Little, University College Communications Specialist
Preparing for Final Exams: Test-Taking Tips	Learn how to get the inside scoop on what the test format will be, how to overcome test-taking anxiety, what to do before test day, and how to handle different kinds of questions that may appear on a test.	Nov. 20 (Thurs) 2pm Hill Hall 331	James Pao, Testing and Proctoring Center
Life After the Degree: Networking with Alumni	This session is designed to give students the chance to connect with WSSU graduates who will share insights from their professions and offer guidance for success! Connect to build meaningful relationships, expand your network, and open doors to future career opportunities.	Nov. 20 (Thurs) 6pm to 7:30pm DJR 100A	WSSU Alumni & Tarsha Damon, Academic Student Experiences and Engagement

Staff Contact:

Mr. James Pao, Testing and Proctoring Center Manager | paojh@wssu.edu | 336-750-2390 | Hill Hall, Room 330