

WSSU Student Success Workshops: FALL SEMESTER 2024

v2 9/10/24

If you are in FYE1250, you must attend at least two of these workshops.

After attending any workshop, please make sure to complete this survey: <https://forms.gle/q2ewgiuSpfp5JM4Y6>

Your report on what you learned from the workshops will be due near the end of the semester (see FYE1250 Canvas page for details).

September 2024

Workshop	Description	Date , Time, and Location	Presented By
Bring Your A-Game to Test Day: SCIENCE	Get ready to crush your exams with confidence! Join our workshop to discover strategies, tips, and techniques for acing any test. From managing anxiety to mastering different question types, we will equip you to bring your A-game on test day.	September 6 (Fri) at 1pm Hall-Patterson 305	Subject Tutoring and Supplemental Instruction
Career and Graduate School Expo	The Expo is open to all majors and attracts students seeking a wide range of internship, co-op, full-time, and graduate school opportunities. It offers a unique chance to network with employers, explore potential career paths, and gain insights into various industries. Don't miss this opportunity!	September 10 (Tues) from 12pm to 3pm DJR (Reeves) Gym	Career Development Services
Finding Your Passion	Why not study what you enjoy while connecting more deeply with the material? Learn to do what you love while connecting that passion to coursework or research opportunities.	September 10 (Tues) at 3:30pm Hill Hall 331	Office of Undergraduate Research
Financial Literacy: Money Matters	When it comes to money, what matters is not how much you make but how much you keep. You have more control than you think over how much you spend, especially when armed with a plan.	September 10 (Tues) at 5pm Hall Patterson 228	Lori Timm, Allegacy Federal Credit Union
Adobe Express: Navigating the Content Creator App	Students will work with a moderator on navigating the different parts of Adobe Express, including webpage, post, flyers, and generative AI.	September 11 (Wed) at 11am and 6pm (choose one) O'Kelly 318 West	James Russell, O'Kelly Library

Workshop	Description	Date , Time, and Location	Presented By
Write & Cite: The Ultimate Guide to APA, MLA, and Chicago Style	This workshop will introduce APA, MLA, and Chicago documentation styles. Additionally, you will learn how to document sources like a pro and elevate your papers.	September 12 (Thurs) at 3:30pm Hill Hall L05	Writing and Communication Center
Bring Your A-Game to Test Day: MATHEMATICS	Get ready to crush your exams with confidence! Join our workshop to discover strategies, tips, and techniques for acing any test. From managing anxiety to mastering different question types, we will equip you to bring your A-game on test day.	September 13 (Fri) at 11am Hill Hall 331 (corrected)	Subject Tutoring and Supplemental Instruction
Digital Storytelling	Students will engage with Adobe software and explore storytelling in a digital space. Software includes Adobe Rush, Adobe Audition, and Adobe Lightroom. Bring your smartphone to participate in various activities during the workshop.	September 17 (Tues) at 2pm and 6:30pm (choose one) O'Kelly 205	James Russell, O'Kelly Library
Less Stress, More Success: Stress Management Tips	A professional from our Counseling Center will provide strategies for students to reduce or eliminate stress connected to academics and collegiate life.	September 18 (Wed) at 4pm and 7pm (choose one) Hill Hall L05	Gabrielle Norcross, Counseling Center
Copyright for Creators (Just the Basics!) Click here to sign up	Check out your rights and responsibilities as content consumers and creators. Discover the basics of copyright, fair use, and how to protect your work to ensure your creative rights are respected.	September 18 (Wed) at 2pm O'Kelly 127	C.G. O'Kelly Library
Copyright for Creators (Just the Basics!) Click here to sign up	Check out your rights and responsibilities as content consumers and creators. Discover the basics of copyright, fair use, and how to protect your work to ensure your creative rights are respected.	September 18 (Wed) at 3pm O'Kelly 127	C.G. O'Kelly Library
Using ChatGPT Ethically and Responsibly	In this workshop, we'll discuss how to use ChatGPT ethically in your writing. You'll learn how to use ChatGPT responsibly to enhance your writing while upholding academic integrity.	September 18 (Wed) at 4pm Hill Hall L05	Writing and Communication Center

Workshop	Description	Date , Time, and Location	Presented By
Copyright for Creators (Just the Basics!)	Check out your rights and responsibilities as content consumers and creators. Discover the basics of copyright, fair use, and how to protect your work to ensure your creative rights are respected.	September 18 (Wed) at 6pm Zoom online Click here to join	C.G. O'Kelly Library
Resumes and Cover Letters	Learn the best ways to organize, format, and present your resume to potential employers. Learn the proper art of the cover letter to give the right amount of you to get the interview.	September 19 (Thurs) at 5pm Hill Hall 331	Tanisha George-Dennis, Career Development Services
Digital Storytelling	Students will engage with Adobe software and explore storytelling in a digital space. Software includes Adobe Rush, Adobe Audition, and Adobe Lightroom. Bring your smartphone to participate in various activities during the workshop.	September 24 (Tues) at 2pm and 6:30pm (choose one) O'Kelly 205	James Russell, O'Kelly Library
Reclaiming Your Time: Time Management Hacks	College is a juggling act. Learn to manage your time wisely to lead a more balanced life while dealing with academic, social, and personal stress.	September 24 (Tues) at 3pm Hill Hall L05	James Pao, Testing and Proctoring Center
Navigating the Job Application / Search	We will present ways to maneuver the job application process. What are the latest websites and tools to make your search better tailored to your needs?	September 24 (Tues) at 4pm Hill Hall 331	Tanisha George-Dennis, Career Development Services
The Fresh Start: Unleashing You & Your Potential	The Fresh Start is a workshop to empower you in goal setting and uncovering your unique identity. Discover how to set goals that align with the college experience you wish to create.	September 26 (Thurs) at 5:30pm Thompson Ballrooms A & C	D'antae Johnson, ASPIRE

October 2024

Workshop	Description	Date , Time, and Location	Presented By
Problem Solving with Creativity	Creative thinking is a crucial real-world skill. Working in teams, we will tackle fun brain teasers to tickle our creative brains.	October 1 (Tues) at 3:30pm Hill Hall L05	James Pao, Testing and Proctoring Center
Exercise for a Healthier You	It doesn't take a gym to stay fit! We will teach you practical ways to do simple exercises throughout the day that can be done almost anywhere, promoting a more balanced and healthier you.	October 1 (Tues) at 4pm New Science 225A	Jordan Hicks, University Recreation Center
Ace Your Midterms: Strategies for Success - ACCOUNTING	Discover personalized strategies tailored to your specific major and area of study to ensure you are fully prepared and ready to ace your midterms.	October 1 (Tues) at 6pm Reynolds 101	Subject Tutoring and Supplemental Instruction
Adobe Express: Navigating the Content Creator App	Students will work with a moderator on navigating the different parts of Adobe Express, including webpage, post, flyers, and generative AI.	October 2 (Wed) at 11am and 6pm (choose one) O'Kelly 318 West	James Russell, O'Kelly Library
Ace Your Midterms: Strategies for Success - SCIENCE	Discover personalized strategies tailored to your specific major and area of study to ensure you are fully prepared and ready to ace your midterms.	October 2 (Wed) at 3pm Reynolds 201	Subject Tutoring and Supplemental Instruction
Ace Your Midterms: Strategies for Success - MATHEMATICS	Discover personalized strategies tailored to your specific major and area of study to ensure you are fully prepared and ready to ace your midterms.	October 3 (Thurs) at 4pm Carolina 206	Subject Tutoring and Supplemental Instruction
The A+ Blueprint: Thesis Statements and Topic Sentences	This workshop will introduce the core elements of thesis statements and topic sentences. Additionally, you will learn to build solid foundations for your essays and make your arguments and claims clear and precise.	October 3 (Thurs) at 4pm Hill Hall L05	Writing and Communication Center
Resumes and Cover Letters	Learn the best ways to organize, format, and present your resume to potential employers. Learn the proper	October 3 (Thurs) at 5:30pm	Tanisha George-Dennis, Career Development Services

Workshop	Description	Date , Time, and Location	Presented By
	art of the cover letter to give the right amount of you to get the interview.	Hill Hall 331
Resumes and Cover Letters	Learn the best ways to organize, format, and present your resume to potential employers. Learn the proper art of the cover letter to give the right amount of you to get the interview.	October 7 (Mon) at 5pm Offered virtually on Zoom	Tanisha George-Dennis, Career Development Services
Adventure Awaits: Study Abroad and Beyond	Curious about studying abroad? Join us as we debunk common myths, explore various study abroad avenues, and uncover the diverse types of study abroad experiences tailored to your interests and goals.	October 8 (Tues) at 3:30pm Hill Hall L05	Office of International Programs
Steps of Research Involvement	Explore ways to get involved in research at every level of your educational path. Be more engaged in your education and have fun learning while conducting research.	October 8 (Tues) at 3:30pm Hill Hall 331	Office of Undergraduate Research
Reclaiming Your Time: Time Management Hacks	College is a juggling act. Learn to manage your time wisely to lead a more balanced life while dealing with academic, social, and personal stress.	October 8 (Tues) at 2pm Hill Hall L05	James Pao, Testing and Proctoring Center
Financial Literacy: Credit Basics	A good credit score and credit history can have a huge impact on your financial independence, providing access to jobs, housing, and future lending. Learn how to proactively build and protect your credit.	October 8 (Tues) at 3pm Hall Patterson 228	Lori Timm, Allegacy Federal Credit Union
Take Charge of YOU: Advocating for Yourself	Whether it is in the classroom, the living room, or any other room, this workshop will uncover healthy ways to speak up for yourself to get what you want and need.	Oct 10 (Thurs) at 3:30pm Thompson A & B	Ashleigh Costley and D'antae Johnson, ASPIRE
Digital Storytelling	Students will engage with Adobe software and explore storytelling in a digital space. Software includes Adobe Rush, Adobe Audition, and Adobe Lightroom. Bring	October 15 (Tues) at 2pm and 6:30pm (choose one)	James Russell, O'Kelly Library

Workshop	Description	Date , Time, and Location	Presented By
	your smartphone to participate in various activities during the workshop.	O'Kelly 205
Cracking the Code: Summary vs. Analysis	Learn how to summarize and analyze a variety of text, including video and audio forms. This workshop will empower you to elevate your critical thinking and writing abilities.	October 16 (Wed) at 3:30pm Hill Hall L05	Writing and Communication Center
Elevator Pitch	You never know who you might meet who could give you that dream job you've been looking for! Do you have a 2-minute pitch ready to present to anyone, anywhere, anytime? Let us help you get there.	October 22 (Tues) at 12pm Hill Hall 331	Tanisha George-Dennis, Career Development Services
Copyright for Creators (Just the Basics!)	Check out your rights and responsibilities as content consumers and creators. Discover the basics of copyright, fair use, and how to protect your work to ensure your creative rights are respected.	October 22 (Tues) at 1pm O'Kelly Room 127	AlTonya Washington, O'Kelly Library
Copyright for Creators (Just the Basics!)	Check out your rights and responsibilities as content consumers and creators. Discover the basics of copyright, fair use, and how to protect your work to ensure your creative rights are respected.	October 22 (Tues) at 2pm O'Kelly Room 127	AlTonya Washington, O'Kelly Library
Copyright for Creators (Just the Basics!)	Check out your rights and responsibilities as content consumers and creators. Discover the basics of copyright, fair use, and how to protect your work to ensure your creative rights are respected.	October 22 (Tues) at 6pm Zoom Online Click here to join	AlTonya Washington, O'Kelly Library
Digital Storytelling	Students will engage with Adobe software and explore storytelling in a digital space. Software includes Adobe Rush, Adobe Audition, and Adobe Lightroom. Bring your smartphone to participate in various activities during the workshop.	October 22 (Tues) at 2pm and 6:30pm (choose one) O'Kelly 205	James Russell, O'Kelly Library
Don't Ghost Your Health: Let's Talk About It	A professional from our Counseling Center will provide guidance on creating and maintaining a positive mental outlook, whether that relates to academics, social, or other areas of life.	October 22 (Tues) at 5pm Hill Hall 331	Gabrielle Norcross, Counseling Center

Workshop	Description	Date , Time, and Location	Presented By
Becoming an Academic Weapon	Sometimes your academic workload can overwhelm you. How do you get back on track when you have fallen behind, and learn to be an academic weapon instead of being a victim of your academic standing?	October 24 (Thurs) at 3:30pm Hill Hall L05	Academic Advising Services
Copyright for Creators (Just the Basics!)	Check out your rights and responsibilities as content consumers and creators. Discover the basics of copyright, fair use, and how to protect your work to ensure your creative rights are respected.	October 30 (Wed) at 1pm O’Kelly Room 127	AlTonya Washington, O’Kelly Library
Copyright for Creators (Just the Basics!)	Check out your rights and responsibilities as content consumers and creators. Discover the basics of copyright, fair use, and how to protect your work to ensure your creative rights are respected.	October 30 (Wed) at 2pm O’Kelly Room 127	AlTonya Washington, O’Kelly Library
How to Quote and Paraphrase Like a Pro	Learn the essentials of quoting and paraphrasing and how to integrate them effectively into your writing.	October 30 (Wed) at 3:30pm Hill Hall L05	Writing and Communication Center
Copyright for Creators (Just the Basics!)	Check out your rights and responsibilities as content consumers and creators. Discover the basics of copyright, fair use, and how to protect your work to ensure your creative rights are respected.	October 30 (Wed) at 6pm Zoom online Click here to join	AlTonya Washington, O’Kelly Library
Navigating the Workplace	Whether you are preparing for a summer job, an internship, or a full-time job after graduation, be prepared for navigating the workplace with these best practices to being successful at work.	October 31 (Thurs) at 12pm and 5pm (choose one) Hill Hall 331	Tanisha George-Dennis, Career Development Services

November 2024

Workshop	Description	Date , Time, and Location	Presented By
Adobe Express: Navigating the Content Creator App	Students will work with a moderator on navigating the different parts of Adobe Express, including webpage, post, flyers, and generative AI.	November 6 (Wed) at 11am and 6pm (choose one) O'Kelly 318 West	James Russell, O'Kelly Library
Reclaiming Your Time: Time Management Hacks	College is a juggling act. Learn to manage your time wisely to lead a more balanced life while dealing with academic, social, and personal stress.	November 12 (Tues) at 2pm Hill Hall L05	James Pao, Testing and Proctoring Center
Digital Storytelling	Students will engage with Adobe software and explore storytelling in a digital space. Software includes Adobe Rush, Adobe Audition, and Adobe Lightroom. Bring your smartphone to participate in various activities during the workshop.	November 12 (Tues) at 2pm and 6:30pm (choose one) O'Kelly 205	James Russell, O'Kelly Library
Final Exam Power Play: Winning Strategies for MATHEMATICS	Feeling the pressure of finals? Join us to unlock powerful strategies for conquering multiple-choice questions, crafting compelling essays, and managing nerves. Overcome test anxiety and gain the confidence you need to ace your finals with ease.	November 12 (Tues) at 6pm Hill Hall L05	Subject Tutoring and Supplemental Instruction
Secure the Bag: Entrepreneurship Skills for Success	Do you want to know how to maximize your business or side hustle? Match the enthusiasm you have for your business goals with real-life best practices through a panel of fellow college entrepreneurs.	November 12 (Tues) at 2pm Hill Hall 331	Dr. Notis Pagiavlas, Professor of Entrepreneurship, and Dr. Tangela Towns, Office of Undergraduate Research
Final Exam Power Play: Winning Strategies for SCIENCE	Feeling the pressure of finals? Join us to unlock powerful strategies for conquering multiple-choice questions, crafting compelling essays, and managing nerves. Overcome test anxiety and gain the confidence you need to ace your finals with ease.	November 13 (Wed) at 11am Hill Hall L05	Subject Tutoring and Supplemental Instruction
Is This Major for Me?	How do I know when my current major isn't for me? Use pre-requisites as a way to understand the kind of work required in the major. Explore the connection	November 14 (Thurs) at 2:30pm	Academic Advising Services

Workshop	Description	Date , Time, and Location	Presented By
	between your major and actual job opportunities when you graduate. Use internships to test the waters.	Hill Hall L05
Final Exam Power Play: Winning Strategies for BUSINESS & ACCOUNTING	Feeling the pressure of finals? Join us to unlock powerful strategies for conquering multiple-choice questions, crafting compelling essays, and managing nerves. Overcome test anxiety and gain the confidence you need to ace your finals with ease.	November 14 (Thurs) at 6pm Hill Hall L05	Subject Tutoring and Supplemental Instruction
Digital Storytelling	Students will engage with Adobe software and explore storytelling in a digital space. Software includes Adobe Rush, Adobe Audition, and Adobe Lightroom. Bring your smartphone to participate in various activities during the workshop.	November 19 (Tues) at 2pm and 6:30pm (choose one) O'Kelly 205	James Russell, O'Kelly Library
Why We Collect Data	In today's data-driven world, information plays a crucial role in shaping decisions and driving progress across various fields. This workshop is designed to help scholars explore how data can be a powerful tool for improving efficiency, tracking performance, and supporting informed decision-making.	November 20th (Wed) from 3:30 to 5pm Hill Hall L05	Office of Undergraduate Research
Less Stress, More Success: Stress Management Tips	A professional from our Counseling Center will provide strategies for students to reduce or eliminate stress connected to academics and collegiate life.	November 21 (Thurs) at 4pm and 7pm (choose one) Hill Hall L05	Gabrielle Norcross, Counseling Center
Financial Literacy: Saving Strategies	Devising a sound savings strategy is essential to good money management. Acquire tools, tips, and a personalized action plan to help you leverage your savings for financial independence.	November 21 (Thurs) at 4pm New Science 225A	Lori Timm, Allegacy Federal Credit Union

Staff Contact:

Mr. James Pao, Manager of the Testing and Proctoring Center | paojh@wssu.edu | 336-750-2390 | Hill Hall room 330