SuperStrong Assessment Student Guide

During your time at Winston-Salem State University, you must prepare for what you would like to do after you graduate from college. This preparation process begins your freshman year and continues until you graduate from WSSU. For many students, this process begins with career discovery and exploring the options available. Winston-Salem State University Career Development Services provides multiple tools and services to all WSSU students. One of these development resources is called SuperStrong – a career discovery tool that will help you assess your current interests and how that might translate to a corresponding career path or an academic major offered at WSSU. This revolutionary tool has guided hundreds of students in making their initial steps in their career development. Once you complete this assessment, schedule an appointment on WSSU CAREERLink with a Career Development Services counselor review your results (Please see the final page for further instructions on how to schedule an appointment with WSSU Career Development Services).
